3. View My Dashboard and check for a membership expiration.

The screenshot displays the IPC My Dashboard interface. At the top, a navigation bar includes links for IPC Home, Cert Portal (CQI), Store, About IPC, WHMA, and Membership. A search bar is located on the right. Below the navigation bar, the IPC logo is on the left, and a menu with links for STANDARDS, CERTIFICATION, EDUCATION, ADVOCACY, NEWS, EVENTS, and SOLUTIONS is on the right. The main content area has a yellow header with the text "My Dashboard" and a navigation sub-menu with "MY DASHBOARD", "MY IPC PROFILE", and "MY IPC EDGE". A red arrow points to the "MY DASHBOARD" tab. Below the header, the user's name "Corey Lynn" and email "CoreyLynn@ipc.org" are shown. A link for "My IPC Profile" is present. The "IPC Membership" section shows "Expires 12/31/2023", with a red arrow pointing to this text. To the right, the "IPC EDGE" logo is displayed above links for "IPC EDGE Learning Management System" and "IPC EDGE Product Catalog". A "Technical Resources" section with a green background and "LEARN MORE" button is also visible. At the bottom, a section titled "Join Over 330,060 of Your Peers" contains a message about contacting the user and a checked checkbox for "Yes I want to subscribe".
